

HYMN: “Jesu, Jesu, Fill Us with Your Love”

#708

Ushers will gather Prayer Requests cards during the hymn.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Gathered together with all the saints, let us pray for the church, the world, and all those in any need.

A brief silence.

You call us, Lord God, to be the church together. Help us to show the grace of God through Christ, that we never tire in our efforts to fill this world with that peace.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

You call us, Lord God, to be faithful stewards of your creation. Cure our complacency, and give us the knowledge and commitment to restore that which has been harmed through our neglect. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

You call us, Lord God, to work for peace and hope in our troubled world. Help us to hear the needs of all who suffer throughout the world—especially those in Syria, Iran, Iraq, Palestine and Israel—that we might respond in compassionate action.

God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

You call us, Lord God, to visit the sick and care for the hurting. Lead us as we open our hearts to the poor, the lonely, the outcast, and all those in any need this day.

God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

You call us, Lord God, to be agents of reconciliation in a divided world. Teach us how to love all people of all races, gender and sexual orientation. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

You call us, Lord God, to be a family of faith within this congregation of Trinity Lutheran Church. Forge us together as one body of Christ, rejoicing in the gifts that students, strangers and all guests bring to this community of grace.

God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Are there others to be lifted to the Lord either spoken aloud or whispered in our hearts? A brief silence. God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

You call us, Lord God, as you called the saints who have gone before us. Strengthen us to be your living witnesses, that the world might know your love.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Into your hands, gracious God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy, through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

PEACE

The peace of the Lord be with you always,
And also with you.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

*GOSPEL: Mark 13:1-8

The holy gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

¹As [Jesus] came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” ²Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

³When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, ⁴“Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” ⁵Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. ⁶Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. ⁷When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. ⁸For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birth pangs.”

The gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYER OF THE DAY: (In unison)

Let us pray.

Almighty God, your sovereign purpose brings salvation to birth. Give us faith to be steadfast amid the tumults of this world, trusting that your kingdom comes and your will is done through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

FIRST READING: Daniel 12:1-3

A reading from Daniel.

¹“At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. ²Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING: Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

A reading from Hebrews.

¹¹Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. ¹²But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” ¹³and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.”

¹⁴For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

¹⁹Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

²³Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. ²⁴And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, ²⁵not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Word of God, Word of life.

Thanks be to God.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread;
Forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those
who sin against us;
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and forever.
Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

God gives food to those who hunger.
Come, be fed, be healed.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace, Lamb of God.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

O God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

BENEDICTION

The love of God who created you, the mercy of † Jesus Christ who died for you, and the power of the Holy Spirit who strengthens you, keep you at one with all the faithful, living and departed, and remain with you now and forever.
Amen.

INTRODUCTION TO THE DAY

November begins with All Saints Day and ends in or near Advent, when we anticipate Christ's coming again. So the readings today tell of the final resurrection and the end time. In the turmoil of hope, fear, and disbelief that these predictions provoke in us, Hebrews sounds a note of confident trust. Christ makes a way for us where there is no way, and we walk it confidently, our hearts and bodies washed in baptismal water, trusting the one who has promised. The more we see the last day approaching, the more important it is to meet together to provoke one another to love and good works.

*CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ☩ one God, clothed in majesty ever since the world began,
 who loves us and frees us from our sins,
 who leads us with all the saints to everlasting life. Amen.
